H. Announcements:
   a. Research involvement request: Help out fellow graduate students:

   Dear Students,

   You are invited to participate in an exciting study of diverse student experiences in graduate school. A team of researchers in the College of Education are investigating the experiences of graduate students who identify as “diverse,” with diversity being broadly defined to include race/ethnicity, nation of origin, sexual/affectional orientation, gender identity, religion, ability, and socio-economic status. Participants will be invited to engage in exciting group discussion about their experiences. For more information, or to participate in a discussion group, please contact Rogers Loche at 318-214-7181 or rogers.loche@okstate.edu.

   Best,
